

Weakening the Wisconsin no-call list would be an outrage. It should be obvious to all involved that consumers do not want to be bothered in their own homes. I do not watch television, and I listen to Satellite radio for many reasons - but one of them being that big business can not get to me in my home that way. Allowing them to call me is an invasion of my privacy. Keep the no-call list in Wisconsin. Thank you.

Adam Traner